Theology of Worship

The background of the slide is a deep blue color. It features several overlapping, semi-transparent, wavy lines that create a sense of movement and depth. These lines are in various shades of blue, from light to dark. A subtle, fine-grained grid pattern is visible throughout the background, adding a technical or digital feel to the design.

Theology of Worship

“Worship is the supreme and only indispensable activity of the Christian Church. It alone will endure, like the love for God which it expresses, into heaven, when all other activities of the Church will have passed away.”

—W. Nichols

Theology of Worship

- “For worship to be as glorious as it should be, for it to lift people out of their mundane cares and fill them with adoration and praise, for it to be the life-changing and life-defining experience it was designed to be, it must be inspired by a vision so great and so glorious that what we call worship will be transformed from a routine gathering into a transcendent meeting with the living God.”
~Allen P. Ross
